

MyHealth Centre

Delivering Quality Patient Care through Innovation, Compassion and Integrity.

Join our Great Place to Work certified organization today!

Working together as part of a united team, MyHealth Centre is the largest Independent Health Care facility in Ontario. We are a “one-stop shop” for physician referrals, providing diagnostic imaging, nuclear medicine, cardiology, PET/CT, gynecology, urology, neurology and pain management to patients throughout Ontario. We have over 40 clinics with more than 400 healthcare professionals working with us to provide superior healthcare to patients.

We are looking to hire Nuclear Medicine Technologists for our Independent Health Facilities located across Ontario.

Position: Nuclear Medicine Technologist

Status: Full-Time/ Part-Time/ Casual

Location: Sudbury & Newmarket, ON

Subject line for application: Application for Nuclear Medicine Technologist – (Location ex. Sudbury): OAMRS

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Preparation
 - Ensure patient identification, safety and preparation procedures are correct before starting nuclear medicine examinations.
 - Ensure relevant patient history is documented.
 - Inform supervisor, or designated person, of unusual or abnormal cases.
 - Set up and adjust nuclear medicine equipment, maintaining established protocol.
 - Monitor supplies and notify supervisor of shortages.
- Performance of Nuclear Medicine Procedures
 - Radio pharmaceutical preparation and quality management.
 - Bone, brain, thyroid, liver, spleen, hepatobiliary, renal scans and lung.
 - I131 thyroid treatments, Bone Densitometry scans.
 - Gallium scans, RBC liver/spleen scans.
 - Venograms, dacrocystograms and testicular scans.
 - Rest and stress MUGA's.
 - Rest and Stress myocardial imaging.
- Quality Control
 - Ensure (and monitor) all quality control assessments are performed as required.
- Equipment Maintenance
 - Observe and report all malfunctions in nuclear medicine equipment.
 - Follow manufacturer's guidelines for operation, maintenance and minor trouble shooting.
- Reporting
 - Sign all required documentation.
 - Ensure all abnormal and urgent cases are handled as outlined in departmental guidelines.
- Safety
 - Clean, tidy and disinfect nuclear medicine equipment and change rooms.
 - Follow established health and safety procedures.

DELIVERING QUALITY PATIENT CARE THROUGH INNOVATION, COMPASSION & INTEGRITY.

- Regulations
 - Comply with all Company and Government Regulations.
 - Maintain continuing CMRTO registration and medical educational requirements necessary for ongoing certification.
- Other
 - Under direction of the supervisor/clinic manager, assists other staff members when workload is completed.
 - Perform other duties as assigned by supervisor.

Experience, Education & Knowledge:

- Active Registration with CMRITO.
- Minimum 1-5 years of related experience.
- Knowledge and proficiency in general nuclear medicine procedures.
- Maintain current CPR and First Aid certificate.
- Maintain competence in position by attending staff meetings.
- Strong organizational and interpersonal skills, good command of the English language and excellent communication skills.
- Ability to work varying shifts and ability to work independently as well as part of a team.
- Self-evaluate performance, establish personal objectives and participate in yearly staff performance review.

Remuneration:

Competitive wages with benefits, vacation, paid sick time and training and development opportunities.

How to Apply:

If you are interested to join our growing team, please send your resume to Human Resources at careers@myhealthcentre.ca with the applicable subject line as below:

“Application for Nuclear Medicine Technologist – (Location ex. Sudbury): OAMRS”

Also, please suggest a best time and phone number to reach you at.

Follow us on LinkedIn: <https://ca.linkedin.com/company/myhealth-centre>

DELIVERING QUALITY PATIENT CARE THROUGH INNOVATION, COMPASSION & INTEGRITY.